Stitch C.R. Stitch is a really cool guy, and I have the bestest time making crafty stuff with him. He also makes cute things, like this really awesome and fun-looking "Book of Klikclak". It's really funny, I just had a great time reading it. Here's his work: Finally, I had to put my own klikclak inside the book! What do you think of this? Is it the bestest, coolest idea? (My original version looks kind of like a barcode, but not really, so I'm calling it a klikclak.) Comments Great book! I love the first picture the most. The fact that you drew in your own klikclak is just awesome. And to have a book of klikclaks was a great idea. Now all of us can make our own klikclaks. And that is a fun thing to do. I think a lot of people would love to have one. That's the bestest idea! (I'm planning on writing a little klikclak poetry in it one day.) It'd be so fun to get everybody making their own. As for getting your own klikclak into the book, I think there are a few ways to go about it. You could maybe put the "C.R. Stitch" part of the name on the klikclak or you could print the letters or draw them. I think that makes the most sense to do it this way. Not that I am the best at drawing, but if you wanted to change the letters to make the klikclak read "c.r. stitch", I think that would be a cool way to do it. I like it. I'd like to see how people get their names into it. Like, you know, make it a klikclak book. We'd have to all draw our own klikclaks and then put them into it, though, so 2d92ce491b
